

Lessons Learned & Future Plans

December 29, 2020 • 1:00 - 2:00 pm CST

Join other farmers from around the state to hear how Farmers' Market Hubs fared this year of creative problem solving with selling and marketing local foods.

Economist Ryan Pesch will break down the financial details and will be available for you to ask questions.

What did we learn and how will it affect the Farmers' Market Hubs going into 2021?

What do farmers need to consider when deciding whether to sell through Hubs in 2021?

Register today at:

www.farmersmarkethub.org

This project was supported by an Extension Risk Management Education grant from the North Central Region, and by a Minnesota Department of Agriculture Specialty Crop Block Grant. Project team collaborators include Renewing the Countryside, Minnesota Institute for Sustainable Agriculture, Minnesota Farmers' Market Association, and University of Minnesota Extension.